IN LOVING Memory

Jazz 91.9 WCLK dedicates this July Issue of the Jazzette to our beloved Tammy Nobles, Assistant Station Manager. She served WCLK for more than 20 years with distinction, honor and grace.

MANAGER'S MESSAGE

As Jazz 91.9 WCLK enters a new fiscal year this month, we are thankful and grateful that we get to welcome new and renewing members to the Jazz 91.9 WCLK family. Thank you for your financial support during the Fiscal Year End Membership Campaign. It is with the broad spectrum of support from members, businesses, community stakeholders and our licensee, Clark Atlanta University, that Jazz 91.9 WCLK is not only able to survive during times like this, but also to thrive. Members are a vital component of the organizational structure of WCLK and you help to fulfill our mission in a variety of ways by providing advocacy, awareness, advancement and generous support.

Wendy Williams

During these unprecedented times, where we all have been impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic in some way or another, we are grateful that Jazz 91.9 WCLK has remained unwavering in its commitment to high quality broadcasting services and, continues to serve listeners in Greater Atlanta and around the world. Like many businesses and organizations WCLK has had to restructure, modify and curtail its major business practices including fundraising. But we hold steadfast to the tradition of member supported public radio, the unique Jazz service that we provide and our mission to uplift, educate and inform the listening audience with a program service that enriches lives and communities. With your continued and unyielding support, WCLK is poised to forge ahead into what we hope and pray will be a brighter Fiscal Year '21 for all. Thank you for helping to insure Jazz 91.9 WCLK continues as a community service for years to come.

WCLK NONPROFIT PARTNER

Don't forget you can forego your member benefits and have a portion of your membership go directly to Hosea Helps/Hosea Feed the Hungry.

Now more than ever, Hosea Helps/Hosea Feed the Hungry is in need of your help. Currently, they are working with other nonprofits in our community to provide assistance during the coronavirus outbreak in order to make sure no one is left behind...especially those who are disenfranchised. We thank you for helping this life changing community service organization.

A very special thank you to all of the Jazz 91.9 WCLK new and renewing members who made a contribution during the WCLK Fiscal Year End Campaign. We understand these are still challenging times for so many, and for the 710 donors who made a contribution, thank you for paying it forward for others to enjoy.

The only way we can continue our mission of high quality programming and community service is because of your continued support. Jazz 91.9 WCLK is here for you as we continue our journey through uncharted waters together.

FROM JOI JOHN, MEMBER SERVICE MANAGER

The Jazz 91.9 WCLK Member Services department is working hard to ensure you receive your new thank you gifts from our recent Fiscal Year End Membership Campaign. If you have any questions about your membership, please contact me at jjohn@cau.edu.

If you selected one of our thank you gifts during the campaign, we will be diligently working to get them to you within the next four to six weeks, however, we thank you in advance for your continued patience as your gift(s) may be delayed due to the coronavirus pandemic.

Remember, if you are a Sustaining Member, your monthly donation will continued to be drafted from your credit/debit card or checking account on or near the 17th of each month unless otherwise authorized.

PROFILE

A native of Atlanta, Georgia, Joe Alterman studied music at New York University, where he received both his Bachelor's and Master's degrees in Jazz Piano Performance. In addition to performances with Houston Person, Les McCann and his own trio, among others, Alterman has performed at many world renowned venues including the Kennedy Center, Lincoln Center, Birdland and New York's Blue Note, where Alterman has opened, many times, for Ramsey Lewis. 30 years old, Alterman has released four critically-acclaimed albums, his most recent being 2018's "More Cornbread."

He was profiled three times by iconic journalist Nat Hentoff and was the subject of Hentoff's very last piece on music in March 2016. Dick Cavett has referred to Alterman as "one fine, first class entertainer" and Ramsey Lewis has called Alterman "an inspiration to me" and his piano playing "a joy to behold."

"Joe Alterman is a young, creative, energetic pianist I really like musically and personally - he does not have a negative bone in his body and plays the you-know-what out of the piano! Although much younger than I, he is an inspiration to me! His piano playing, his will to explore and his ability to swing is a joy to behold. God bless him!" - Ramsey Lewis
